

HARMAN PANNU

Summary

I am Web Developer specializing in front-end web development. Experienced in building Web Applications in React JS and static websites in Gatsby JS(React) and in Html, CSS, JS, and jQuery. I also have experience in working with RESTful API's. I tend to write lots of Javascript and have a genuine passion for web. I like little details, love interactivity, UI & UX. I believe in simplicity and consistency.

Currently, I am seeking to learn and grow under the mentorship of proficient developers. I am very passionate about learning new technologies and solving problems. Looking for a company to help solve problems.
